IMEC (Marie Cobel) with “Friends”
May 26, 1986

Session 189: Aspects of the five senses

Summary: The aspects of the five senses have become separated in the sense of the total being and they have been given specific roles, specific duties. These processes have their roles and their duties have come into existence through personal experience.

Report by Daniel Erickson